

A long time ago in the year of MCMLXXXIV in the Old Calendar, there lived an evil Tsar, Vladimir the Short, who was so very fond of acquiring new countries that he spent all his Empire's money on attacking them.

He did not trouble about his soldiers. He did not care to go to the theatre. He only went out when he had the chance to scare his subjects about the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the European Union, Jews and other such vile Nazis. He liked to wage war on peaceful neighbouring countries before every election of a new Tsar in order to appear clever and strong, and to avoid people looking too closely at the vote or his high-heeled shoes.

Most Presidents and Kings could be found sitting in Council reading the classified arrest warrant issued for the Tsar. But it was said of the Tsar, "He is sitting alone in his bunker."

The monster scheming evil plans in his bunker.
